COUNCIL TRANSACTS RECORD AMOUNT OF BUSINESS MONDAY NITE

A record amount of business was transacted by the City Council at its regular meeting Monday night at city hall. Mayor Paul Green called the meeting to order with Councilmen Fred Bertetta, A. J. Gaggero and Edward Mooney present and Councilman Melford Battye absent.

After holding a hearing and ordering the abatement of a building at 18 Woodrow street, the council approved a bid from Hahn and Campbell, Burlingame planning consultants, for the preparation of a new zoning map and ordinance for Daly City at a cost of $950.

The council authorized the mayor and city clerk to sign a supplementary agreement with the State Division of Highways, budgeting state gas tax funds for the following projects: General street maintenance, $11,748; extension of Brunswick street, $36,040; improvements on Hillside boulevard, $11,400, and approved $10,500 for Juniperro Serra traffic signals.

An agreement with the Colma Fire District, whereby the police department will receive incoming fire calls for the district, was approved, with the Colma Fire District maintaining liability.

Recommendations from the Daly City Merchants association, calling for extension of No. 14 bus service to San Pedro road, and reccommending a city health inspector, were referred to the Transportation and Health committees, respectively. Council members have previously requested the S.F. Municipal Railway to extend the bus service.

Allen Hertel, top man in the recent civil service examination for chief clerk in the municipal water collection office, was appointed to the position, and Mrs. Marion McKaskle, high on the list for senior clerk in the same department, was also appointed to duty, effective February 23.

Resolutions adopted by the council included the following:

Authorized city attorney to petition county board of supervisors to form assessment district for improvements in the Garden Village area, part of which is outside the city limits.

Resolutions commending the services of Andrew Conaty, Muriel Jones and Barbara Parodi, who have resigned from city employment, were sent to each individual.

An agenda system, whereby all matters to come before the city council at regular meetings on the second and fourth Mondays of each month must be filed with the city clerk by 2 p.m. on Friday preceding the meeting night, was approved.

First, Second and Third avenues in Garden Village were extended, replacing Taylor, Clark and Garden streets. Several street changes in the Westlake subdivision, not yet completed, were also approved.

New ordinances included revisions in the building permit code, electrical code and a change in the fee for installation of water meters. A number of easements in the Westlake subdivision were abandoned, and March 30 was set as a hearing night.

BRISBANE WOULD LIKE TO JOIN US?

A suggestion that Brisbane incorporate with South San Francico or Daly City was made recently by residents in that community.

However, Lester E. Bybee, Brisbane real estate broker and civic leader, said that no action would be taken along that line in the near future and that such incorporation was merely "speculation."

Jay Johnson Is Recovering From Effects Of Fire

Jay Johnson, 243 Miriam street, is recovering this week from first degree burns received when a burst of flame from his apartment threw him back into the hallway as he opened the door. Damages resulting from the fire which occurred last Thursday afternoon exceeded $5,000, according to Johnson.

Johnson, who is the organizer of the Daly City Boys Club, said he had just returned to his apartment at 6 p.m. after a five-minute absence.

According to Fire Chief Elmer Kennedy, the apartment was filled completely with flames when fire trucks arrived. A second alarm was turned in, and ladders raised to the second-story apartment. Five other families were routed by the fire.

Accumulation of gas in a faulty kitchen stove was believed to have started the fire.

Bus Fare Hike Of 75 Pct. Is Just Too-o-o-o-o Much

Protesting the recent hike in the Greyhound bus line fares between San Bruno and San Francisco, a delegation of residents in San Bruno's Bel Air tract last week requested their city council members to restore the No. 40 street car.

The bus fare was recently increased from 20 cents to 35 cents, a boost of 75 per cent. The delegation expressed the belief that the bus company needs competition in order to get the fares back to normal.

Council members took no action on the measure.

COUNCIL OKAYS MISSION STREET TRAFFIC PLANS

At the same time, a program for improvements on Mission street at Market street and San Pedro road was approved.

The city council, in approving an expenditure of approximately $21,000 for the projects, requested immediate action by State authorities, but actual work is being delayed so that work can be coordinated with removal of street car tracks on Mission street, which removal will be accomplished by San Francisco's Municipal Railway Department.

Mayor Paul Green has written to Mayor Elmer Robinson, inviting his cooperation in expediting the work.

Plans For Junipero Serra Traffic Project Okayed; Will Include Traffic Island, 3 Phase Signals

Bids for the long-awaited installation of traffic signals at the School street, Junipero Serra boulevard and 87th street intersection are expected to be let by the end of February, it was announced by Mayor Paul Green on Monday.

Plans have been completed by engineers of Joint Highway District No. 10 and approved by the State Division of Highways. Cost of the project was estimated at $21,000, with half being paid by the Highway District while the city has committed $10,500 out of gas tax funds.

Traffic islands, channelizing Junipero Serra automobiles will be erected at the north and south approaches to the intersection, with three-phase signals being installed to accommodate traffic.

Autos entering Junipero Serra boulevard from School street or 87th street will pass over signal activators which will automatically change the signals for cross traffic. Pedestrians wishing to cross Junipero Serra boulevard will press a button and the signals will re-act accordingly.

On the traffic islands in the center of Junipero Serra, powerful luminaire electroliers will be installed, to keep the crossing well lighted at all times.

Cliff Pettigrew Celebrates 33rd Year In Business

Thirty-three years in business are being celebrated this week by Cliff Pettigrew, owner of the Daly City Garage at 47 Hillcrest avenue.

Pettigrew came to Daly City in 1907 when "Hillcrest was nothing but a cow pasture." In 1916, after graduating from Sacred Heart College in San Francisco, he and Tom Prescott opened up a garage at the present location of the Central Club.

The garage was closed while Cliff was in the service during the first World War, and when he came back he reopened it at its present location calling it the Hillcrest Garage. In 1928, the name was changed to Daly City Garage.

Operating a 24-hour tow service, Pettigrew is now operating his 42nd tow car used in his 33 years of business. He is now building what will be his 43rd tow car.

Duo-Pianists Delight Audience At Hi School Aud.

Climaxing an evening of enjoyable music, Vera Appleton and Michael Field played the Saber Dance as an encore at the Community Concert series held Friday evening. The pianists had introduced the song into this country five years ago.

Anton Aresnsky's Valse and Liebesleid by Fritz Kreisler and Rachmaninoff, were among the best liked selections played by the duo-pianists during the evening.

Those who attended the reception at the Broadmoor Community Center following the concert found the artists' personalities as pleasing as their stage appearances. In charge of the reception were Mrs. Erda Branstetter and Mrs. Irene Blanco. Receiving the artists were Mrs. Dorothy Drotor and Mrs. Marjorie Hanrahan.

Preparations are now being made by the Concert Association for the coming of the next artist, Mary Van Kirk, a metropolitan star.

Council Goes To Work On Lighting

Another step in the city council's program for improvements in Daly City was near fulfillment this week when it was announced that the first high-power mercury street lamps will soon be installed on Mission street. Seventeen of the new street lights will be installed in the next few days on Mission street, from the Bank of America to Knowles avenue.

City officials promised that the remainder of Mission street, and later other portions of the city, would be serviced with the new lamps as soon as they can be made available. The Pacific Gas and Eelectric company has so far been unable to provide the new lights in quantity.

The mercury lamps, while more expensive than conventional street lights, are many times more effective in brightening street areas and penetrate fog and darkness with remarkable success.

The council, composed of Mayor Paul Green, Melford Battye, Fred Bertetta, A. J. Gaggero and E. J. Mooney, has requested that the new lamps be installed at all Mission street intersections as soon as they can be made available, to lessen the traffic hazard for pedestrians. Eventually, it is planned to service all business and amusement areas with the mercury lights.

The council is also examining bids from manufacturers of street signs, with the intention of installing enameled signs at all intersections throughout the city. The first phase of the street sign program, covering 75 main-travelled intersections, was completed about six weeks ago.

RECREATION COMMISSION PLANNING TO FORM JUNIOR BOYS CLUB HERE

It's Okay To Drive Through Safety Zones But Watch That Speed

Removal of ribbed traffic-bars, which formerly protected street car passenger loading zones on Mission street, was being completed this week, according to A. J. Bodien, director of public works. Dave Cafferetta and his street gang had completed the removal of all ribs from Knowles avenue north to the county line and completion of the remainder was expected to be accomplished this week.

Since abandonment of the No. 40 car line, and replacement of the No. 14 street cars with buses, the safety zones are no longer required.

Police Chief W. W. Sunderland, in announcing that it is now okay for motorists to drive through the white-painted zones, nevertheless warned drivers to be alert for pedestrians who must cross Mission street, and said that the speed limit on Mission street will be strictly enforced to prevent accidents.

Lencioni Released On $50 Cash Bail

Giavannie Lencioni, 140 Bruno avenue, was released on $50 cash bail after being arrested for being drunk and disturbing the peace. Lencioni was creating a disturbance at the Imperial Grill, 7384 Mission street, last Sunday.

He will appear before Judge William Sweeney February 18.

Members of the Recreation Commission present at the regular meeting last Tuesday evening were told that a Daly City Junior Boys club was being formulated. It is hoped that such a worthy project will receive the encouragement of the entire community.

Director Elman Rose at that time reported on various sports activities which included the proposed issuance of a prize to each member of the winning school in recent football league games and a school trophy on which will be inscribed the name of the winner each year. Basketball between the schools is now in its final round of play.

Girl Scout leaders Mrs. Hale and Mrs. Michelson were present to ask for repairs that should be taken care of at the scout house on Peoria street. These improvements have been referred to City department heads.

All PTA presidents and scout leaders are asked to attend the next regular meeting of the Recreation department in order to make final arrangement for the Easter Egg hunt to be held on the high school field.

A preliminary discussion was held regarding the May Day festival. A committee was appointed to meet with merchant leaders to discuss the possibility of the merchants sponsoring the parade for the festival.

Arrangements are also underway for the employment by the city of a part-time maintenance man to care for the centers throughout the city.

Business must be getting back to normal.

At least that was the opinion of the city council Monday night when they opened the bids for street improvements in Hillside Manor subdivision number two.

Where such projects formerly attracted only two or three bidders, the Hillside improvements resulted in eight firms bidding on the work.

Sterling Building Company was low bidder and was awarded the contract for installation of streets, curbs and sidewalks and sewage facilities. Their bid was $18,765.30. Other bidders included: Eaton and Smith, $25,220.05; De Lucca and Son, $21,334.50; Douglas and Woodhouse, $20,046.93; Peter Sorenson Co., $21,451.01; Bragato Paving Co., $18,992.78; B. GEORGE WASHINGTON

George Washington was anything but a hero to some of the people of his day. He was criticized for everything from his politics to his personal habits.

But the petty jealousies and personal animosities have passed with the passing of time, and now, a century and a half after his death, we see the man and his deeds in their true perspective.

We see him as the inspiring and dauntless leader of the ragged Continental Army, fighting not only the British but the political intrigue against him in Philadelphia. We see him as the influential chairman of the Constitutional Convention who helped to save that convention from collapse. We see him as the wise and farsighted first President of the infant United States.

Washington said in a letter to President Adams in 1798, "My whole life has been dedicated to my country in one form or another." Anyone familiar with his career would not doubt that statement.

It was largely because of this devotion to his country that the Colonies were able to break free of British rule, it was because of this devotion that he severely rebuked attempts to make him king, it was because of this that he worked to establish a government of laws and not of men.

Whatever the objections were to Washington's politics and personal habits, the point to be noted is that time has obscured his critics while revealing his true stature. The honor we pay him on this 217th anniversary of his birth is an honor well deserved by a great leader who helped lay the foundations of a great nation.

AMERICANA

Pinball and slot machines take in $150 million a year.

One person in every six gets a regular check from Uncle Sam.

Factory workers collecting close to $55 per week can't buy as much food as they could with their $25 average weekly pay in 1939.

The average American owes slightly more than $5,900 as his share in the national debt. He pays $100 interest on it each year. He also owes nearly $300 in personal debts and has savings of $350.

He earns $360 per month and pays $475 a year in taxes. The house he lives in cost $4600 ten years ago. It's worth more than $10,000 now. He has a prewar car, but wants to buy a new one. His family consumes 160 gallons of coffee a year and almost as much milk.

PEANUTS! POPCORN!

The 10-minute recess between the fifth and sixth innings suggested by the Hollywood Baseball Club isn't getting a very hearty response from the fans. For decades the game has been played without a recess. Why is it necessary or desirable now?

Is it intended to give the fans time to walk around and visit as during the intermission at the opera? Or would there be card stunts as in football games? Some people suspect that the idea is to encourage the sale of hot dogs, peanuts and popcorn.

If that's the case, why not set up concessions in the dugouts and let the players sell the stuff? They could give out free autographs on sales of 10 cents or more. But what most Coast League fans want is not the opportunity to buy more peanuts but the opportunity to see a few good ballplayers.

The Greeks had two words for it: "ariston metron," meaning moderation is best, a slogan which could be profitably adopted by automobile drivers, the California State Automobile Association observes. Moderation when applied to speed means a speed which is reasonable and safe under prevailing conditions.

In the few years since the war these young men with their own capital, augmented by a Bank of America loan, have established a market in San Francisco which is today "busting its seams." NEWS FROM THE SCHOOLS

JEFFERSON

Jefferson School children were pleased with the "hot dog" sale sponsored by the P.T.A. last week. The first grade even made special table cloths for the occasion. The Brownies attending Jefferson were very helpful during the serving.

Edith Detwieler, Polly Danielson and Nancy Hopper were the narrators during Story Hour in their fourth grade class last week.

A new pupil, William Clark, has come to the fourth grade here from San Francisco.

George deRuce was welcomed back to the third grade. He had been out of school for a while because of a broken arm. During his absence he went on a trip to New Jersey.

The third and fourth grades were entertained by a program of Western songs, broadcast by the Standard School Broadcast. The children learned something of the background of some of their favorite songs.

Lowell Klaisner brought a phonograph to school last week and Erick Faust his transcribed records of "Treasure Island" and "Robin Hood." The students read the story and then listened to the records.

Students who have transferred from Thornton to Jefferson School for their seventh grade work are Paul and Yvonne Del Braccio, Andrew Delfino, Robert Marshall, Jeanette Massoni, Dina Ottolini and Marie Sontiago.

CROCKER

The semi-annual student body election of officers took place this past week in the H8th grade at Crocker. Forty-five students participated in their school election. Previous to the nomination and election of officers a discussion of the advantages of a democratic government was pointed out, illustrating that membership in any group grants privileges, but imposes duties and responsibilities. The group was made to realize that to participate in the formulation of rules was true democracy. The expression of intense interest during the discussion was indicative of complete comprehension of the importance of the issue involved. Following are the officers for the spring term, '49: Shirley Filippo, president; Joe Lewkowitz, vice-president; Pauline O'Connor, secretary; Miriam Villalba, treasurer; Harry Miller and Margaret Moore, class representatives; Phyllis Rather and Bob Stone, sergeants-at-arms; Andy Vranich, school pianist.

Acct. Number Is No Identification

Social security account number cards should not be accepted as identification for the purpose of cashing checks, according to Edward J. Foley, manager of the San Mateo office of the Social Security Administration.

"The Social Security Administration does not attempt to establish definitely the identity of an individual until such time as a claim is filed at age 65 or upon death of an insured individual," said Foley. "Therefore, a merchant or other person who accepts the social security account number as identification for the purpose of cashing a check is on very shaky ground.

"Furthermore, the records of the Social Security Administration are confidential and ordinarily are not available for verification to persons other than the wage earner himself. These records are maintained solely for the purpose of keeping a record of the wages earned by individuals covered by the system."

These officers will compose the executive board of the school and shortly will hold an inaugural assembly.

The final tally in favor of annual promotion is being reported from the Crocker School, 99.1 per cent of the ballots having been returned. Those voting favorably toward the shift to annual promotion numbered 174 against 67 who wished to retain the present semi-annual system.

The students of the L5 and H5 last week welcomed to their class Harry Jepson from Cotati, California.

H5 and L6 classes have been diligently working in preparation for commencing a California Indian frieze in connection with their social studies unit "California." During the language period, the classes have been enjoying Longfellow's famous poem "Hiawatha."

L6 and H6 are continuing with their unit on the Pacific Islands. They are following the immigration of seals from the frozen Pribiloffs and the imigration of Polynesians in their outrigger canoes among the numerous islands of the Pacific.

New Regulations Are Issued For Veteran Schools

Veterans Administration today issued regulations which will require approximately 10 California non-profit schools to negotiate contracts with VA to determine fair and reasonable tuition charges for vocational courses for veterans enrolled under the G. I. Bill and Public Law 16.

Institutions of higher learning are not affected by the new procedures, local VA officials said.

VA reported that in the past some non-profit schools in the United States were claiming tuition for veterans in excess of instructional costs. Rates charged by some non-profit public schools in fact, were higher than rates charged by profit schools offering similar courses.

VA's new contract requirements are designed to limit tuition payments to non-profit institutions to the reasonable and necessary costs of offering instruction.

The new requirements affect the following non-profit institutions offering courses below the college level, where enrollments consist mainly of veterans and where tuition does not exceed the rate of $500 for a full-time course for an ordinary school year.

1. Schools established since the passage of the G. I. Bill on June 22, 1944.

2. Schools established before that date which raised their charges to all students by more than 25 per cent.

3. Schools which originally started before June 22, 1944, but have not been in continuous operation since then.

4. Schools, though established before the G. I. Bill, which have added new and unrelated courses not provided for non-veterans before that time.

VA does not consider that these schools have "customary costs of tuition." Therefore, contracts are necessary to establish "fair and reasonable" costs of tuition instead, for those courses in which veterans are enrolled.

The new regulations require non-profit schools falling within these categories to submit cost data to VA, showing the actual cost for teaching and related personnel, consumable classroom instructional supplies, travel expenses for itinerate instructors, building operation, maintenance, taxes, depreciation, insurance, rent, allowances for administration and supervision, and advertising expenses.

Contracts with VA, providing for tuition rates determined to be fair and reasonable, are necessary in order for the schools affected to receive payment for instruction furnished to veterans under the G. I. Bill and Public Law 16.

Save The Day, Make Onion Soup the Easy, Convenient Way—

ONION SOUP is a universal favorite and the recipes vary as much as the countries from which they originate. Some use a cream sauce base, others use meat stock, but who always has the time to make cream sauce? Or who always has meat stock on hand?

You can have a delicious onion soup without those ingredients, though. From the recipe given here, note how simple it can be, how easily and quickly it is made. Then delight in the way your family goes for Favorite Onion Soup.

Favorite Onion Soup

7 medium-sized onions or 1¾ lbs.
⅓ cup Nucoa margarine
¼ teaspoon pepper
6 cups water
7 bouillon cubes
1¼ teaspoons Worcestershire Sauce
Salt to taste
6 slices French bread, toasted and spread with Nucoa margarine
Grated Parmesan cheese

Valentine Day Ideas for You

By Ida M. Pardue

Bow Valentine

A VALENTINE which is also a small gift is truly a red-letter greeting. And making one for a special friend is heaps of fun! So simple, too.

For each valentine, make a large double heart joined at the top. The picture below shows you how to cut such a heart.

Get out your crayons and make the top heart as pretty as you can. Tiny golden arrows and small blue flowers make a pretty border. Write or print these words on the top heart:

Oh, valentine
I love you so
If you'll be mine
I'll be your . . .

You can see it takes the word "beau" to end the rhyme. Instead of the word, place a real bow, a hair bow, in the center of the heart underneath. Fasten the bow in place with a piece of Scotch tape. If you have no Scotch tape, pin or sew the bow to the paper.

• • •

Heart-y Game

HERE'S a heart-y game to play at a Valentine party. Pass around sheets of scratch paper and pencils. Ask your guests to write short valentine messages of five words each—words beginning h, e, a, r, t, as in the word "heart."

Here's an example:

Hope
Everyone
Always
Responds
Truly

Or:

How
Each
Adorable
Romance
Thrills

Of course, the funnier the sentiment, the better.

Give a small prize for the best greeting. Set a time limit, and then have everyone read his greeting aloud, so a vote can be taken to decide the best.

• • •

Sew Easy

IT'S so easy to make these amusing "sew easy" valentines.

Use odds and ends from your sewing basket. If Mom has pinking shears and will allow you to use them, do so, for they cut a very fancy border. Any scissors will do, however. First, cut some 4-inch squares from red or white construction paper.

Take one of the paper squares. If you have used red paper, give it a border of splashy blue, or any other shade you wish. If it is cut from plain white paper, a border of bright red will look fine.

Now find a snap fastener. It is needed to fill in the missing word in this jingle, which is to be printed across the face of the card:

No other Valentine will do
I don't give a (snap) for a one but you.

Or:

Please, oh please, don't (snap) at me;
Your Valentine I want to be.

To fasten the snap down, just work the pointed half through the paper and snap the two pieces together.

A button will fill the empty space in these lines for another valentine:

Don't (button) up your loving heart
I'd like to own the biggest part.

With needle and thread, take a few running stitches to complete this:

I'm in (stitches)—can't you see?
'Cause you haven't chosen me!

A hook fastener takes care of this one:

I'm so bold, and you're so shy
I'm sure to (hook) you, by and by.

3. CREAM CITY in Wisconsin nicknamed from the cream-colored brick made there.
4. SMOKY CITY in Pennsylvania so-titled from the smoke which overhangs it.

By using the words and pictures, you will uncover four facts about "Honest Abe."

1. When does a doctor order a lady to become a cannibal?

Good Words Can Be Useful Tools

THE ease with which teen-agers pick up the slang expressions of the day is proof sufficient that learning new words comes naturally. So why not learn good words?

What new words, other than slang expressions, have YOU learned this week? this month? this year?

A broad vocabulary is important. The words you learn today could, in a few more years, spell the difference between a top position and a mediocre job. They could mean, even now, a real social handicap. Your vocabulary is stamping you for better or for worse, for life.

The first question is: how can you build a vocabulary? To go to the dictionary and study a page at a time sounds dull and it is.

Why not take a subject in which you are enthusiastically interested as a starter? Your hobby, for instance, might be chemistry. A whole crop of new words are being born daily in this field. Chloromycetin, the new antibiotic, is one. And what, by the way, is an antibiotic? The definitions of these two words may open up an entirely undiscovered field of knowledge to you.

In each new definition you may find words you do not know. Look them up and learn them. Your trips through the dictionary may take you to many interesting fields.

Sound Effects

Shirley, a pre-kindergarten youngster, had been learning the sounds various barnyard animals make.

One evening, after dinner, Shirley fell asleep on the divan while her mother was doing the dishes. Mother finished her work, then went in the living room and found Shirley.

"Oh, my precious little lamb!" exclaimed Mother.

Shirley roused from her slumber, opened one eye and said: "Ba-a-a-a!"

"Abounds in merriment. The play is scheduled for showing on February 25 in the high school auditorium. Curtain time is 8 o'clock.

The characters of the play are being portrayed by Claire Allen, Bill Denton, Jane Bernath, Brad Holliday, Owen Charles, Don Molrweis, Lyn Hodge, Jim Filippo, Jean McAvay, Joan Hopman, Jim Harrison, Gwen Harris and Jim Watso.

The production staff of the play is headed by Bunnie Pilloud, student director; Mildred Jenkins, property mistress; and Louis Mero, ticket and advertising manager.

The New York Sun calls it "Homespun and Folksy" and the New York American says: "Audiences laughed practically from beginning to end of show," when the play was given in New York.

We sometimes wonder if we presented the same problems to our parents as the children of the present day do to theirs. Naturally parents feel that they have something to say in directing the destinies of their offspring. But just as naturally said offspring inevitably have their own ideas as to said destinies and more often than not the old and young ideas clash.

Whatcha Know? Joe!

Newsmen and arm-chair diplomats strove unsuccessfully to arrange a meeting between President Truman and Marshal Stalin, but it was no trick at all for artist Jacek Karpowicz of Paris, France. Karpowicz, who views the present era of "phony peace" pessimistically, made his own Truman and Stalin of papier-mache, and got them together for this striking portrait.

Lorraine Espeland And Ernest Day Jr. Unite In Marriage

Valentine's Day made an appropriate setting for the marriage of Lorraine Espeland and Ernest Day Jr. The ceremony was performed at Bethel Lutheran Church by Reverend H. P. Schroeder at 7:30 in the evening.

Given in marriage by Ernest Day Sr., Lorraine chose a white satin gown with a train fashioned with marquisette yolk with a beaded neckline. Her finger-tip French imported veil was held in place with a pearl studded tiara. Her cascade bouquet of carnations and bouvardia was centered with a white orchid corsage.

Her sole attendant was the groom's sister, Lorraine Day, who donned a pink brocaded satin gown fashioned with a square neckline and bustle. She carried an old-fashioned bouquet of pink camellias and carnations.

Best man duties were performed by Ronald R. Rowe. Ushers were Gerald Vullmahn and Robert Olston.

Mrs. Day wore a grey handkerchief silk dress with pink floral design and black accessories. She wore an orchid corsage.

The couple left for a week's honeymoon at Carmel following a reception at the groom's home, 891 Brunswick street. Approximately one hundred guests were in attendance to watch the couple cut their four-tiered cake.

Ernie was graduated from Jefferson Union High school and San Mateo Junior college and is presently employed by the San Francisco News. Lorraine was graduated from Edmonds High school, Washington.

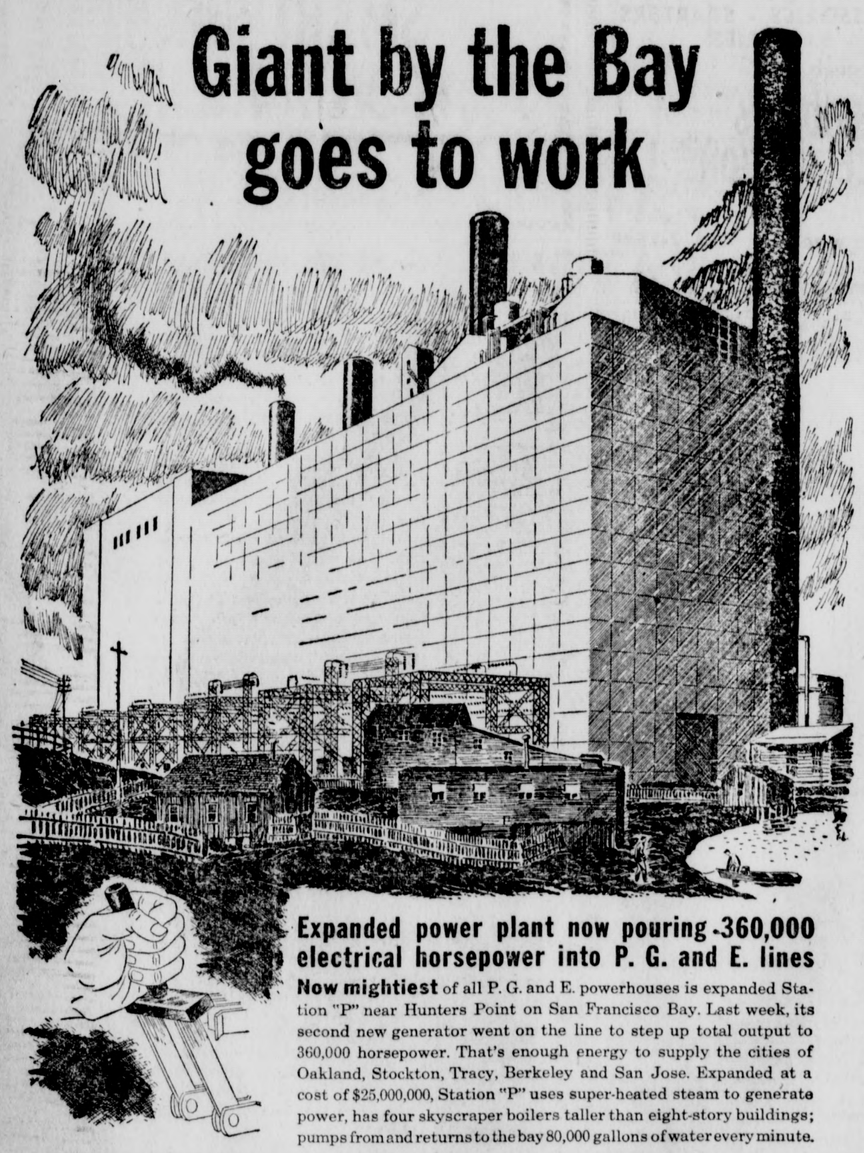
Giant by the Bay goes to work



Expanded power plant now pouring 360,000 electrical horsepower into P. G. and E. lines

Now mightiest of all P. G. and E. powerhouses is expanded Station "P" near Hunters Point on San Francisco Bay. Last week, its second new generator went on the line to step up total output to 360,000 horsepower. That's enough energy to supply the cities of Oakland, Stockton, Tracy, Berkeley and San Jose. Expanded at a cost of $25,000,000, Station "P" uses super-heated steam to generate power, has four skyscraper boilers taller than eight-story buildings; pumps from and returns to the bay 80,000 gallons of water every minute.

1,519 men — 23 crafts and trades worked on the Station "P" expansion. This is just one example of how P. G. and E.'s power-building program creates employment.

New post-war homes, farms and factories in the area are being served fully. Last year alone, for example, 60,000 new service connections were made.

News Notes From San Mateo Jaysee

Wesley Lynn Jaeger of South San Francisco, who has only recently returned from Africa, will speak at the San Mateo Junior College Monday evening, February 21, at the regular meeting of Community Hall. His lecture, illustrated with color movies, will start at 7:30 in the college auditorium and is open to the public without charge. He will talk about South Africa, its people, scenic spots, mines, and customs and will continue his African program a week later, February 28, in the same hall.

This Friday evening San Mateo Junior College students will play a conference opponent, Hartnell of Salinas, in the Matean gym. This basketball game is one of the few remaining on the San Mateo schedule. Following the game the students will have their Freshman reception dance, called the "Howdy Doody Dance," at Matson Hall on Coyote Point. Dick Cresta and his band will play.

As soon as weather conditions permit, the junior college will start a heavy program of spring sports, in addition to basketball, with the following coaches ready to start work: Dell Fishback, in track; "Sy" Bashor, tennis; Herb Hudson, football; and Ray Balsley, golf and badminton. Some practice is already underway.

With its spring semester now underway, San Mateo jaysee has over thirteen hundred students enrolled. Some were late in getting to their classes as they had been snowed in while on ski trips to the Sierras during the short break between semesters.

MORE HELP AT COMMUNITY HOSPITAL

County Executive Peterson last week approved an emergency request from Health Director Dr. Harold D. Chope for employment of 10 additional nursing attendants to care for an increased patient load at the San Mateo institute.

Medics had served an ultimatum that unless more help was received several of the wards at the Community hospital would be closed.

S.F. City Attorney To Retire

John J. O'Toole, San Francisco city attorney since his first election in November, 1925, has announced his retirement effective March 1. Mayor Elmer E. Robinson announced he will appoint O'Toole's chief assistant, Dion Holm, to the post for the remainder of the term, which expires next January.

Salt in the Ocean

A scientist estimates that the amount of salt in the world's oceans is enough to cover the United States with a layer a mile and a half deep.

SPORTSMEN'S CALENDAR

The increasing pressure placed on California waters and its fish-life by more than a million anglers is reflected in the 1949 sport fishing regulations just announced by the Fish and Game Commission.

Effective March 1, new conservation measures set by the Commission for the coming year include:

Reduction in the daily bag limit of black bass from ten to five fish;

A May 30 trout season opening in 11 central Sierra region counties—one month later than the general May 1 start in the remainder of the State;

Cut in the daily abalone bag limit from ten to five:

Establishment of a two-month closed season starting March 1 for black bass and sunfish angling in northern California;

Reduction of a bag limit of ocean game fish from 15 to 10 per day;

Inauguration of a bag limit of 50 scallops and 15 rockfish.

Except as modified by 1949 regulations, all previous angling regulations and stream closures set by the Governor, Legislature, or Commission will remain in effect.

With the excepion of Lake Tahoe, Donner Lake, Boca Reservoir, Lake Almanor, Butt Lake, and the Pit River and its Lassen county tributaries, California's new summer trout season extends from May 30 to October 31 in the following counties: Mariposa, Tuolumne, Alpine, Calaveras, El Dorado, Amador, Placer, Nevada, Sierra, Plumas, and Lassen.

General trout season in the remainder of the State begins May 1, ending October 31.

To the permit the taking of salmon and steelhead trout during spring and early fall months without setting up special salmon regulations, the bag limit of 15 fish or 10 pounds and one fish was modified to permit the taking of at least three fish, regardless of weight.

The Commission adopted a recommendation of the Organized Sportsmen of California prohibiting freshwater angling between March 1 and April 30 in all counties north of Mono, Madera, Fresno, Kings, and San Luis Obispo counties. Angling for striped bass, shad and catfish is expected. Clear Lake and the southern portion of the State will retain the all-year spiny-ray fishing season.

At the request of the Northern California Conservationists, night fishing for catfish will be permitted after March 1 in Siskiyou, Shasta, and Modoc counties.

BIBLE COMMENT

FOR FEB. 13

There Is No Place For Prejudice In Our Religion

A PLAUSIBLE philosophy of life has said, "Be good and you will be happy." But if happiness consists in being free from danger, and immune from pain, the sufferings of good men, often persecuted because of their very goodness, have revealed how false is that easy adage.

A deep mystery of life is that the innocent have suffered with the guilty. It is the mystery of the Cross, and the suffering and sacrifice of Christ himself.

The hostility that Jesus aroused in His prejudiced fellow-townsmen as He began His ministry in Nazareth continued on the part of many throughout His ministry.

Religion ought to make men humane, kind, considerate, ready and eager to help one another. But unfortunately it has often made them bitter and full of hatred.

It was not unnatural that the claims of Jesus should be questioned by some, as they had been by his own brothers (John 5:7). But why should His pronouncement of the forgiveness of sins have aroused such hatred? If He had no power to forgive sins, the sins would not be forgiven. To question His authority was one thing—to hate Him, and seek to kill Him, was another.

Again, the Sabbath was a noble Jewish institution, a symbol of the utmost sacredness and devotion. Its observance called forth the loftiest feelings in devout Jews. But when its observance became so formal that concern for the welfare of one's fellowmen was obliterated, the glory of the Sabbath was lost. To break the Sabbath, in their idea of it, was a greater sin than to have hatred and murder in one's heart.

The opposition of certain Scribes and Pharisees and official religious authorities had more justification.

The mistake that they made was in ignoring the actual words and deeds, in being blind to the authority of goodness, and in hating One whom the people heard gladly.

Are we wiser than those of old? Is religion our response to the goodness of God, or is it dominated by prejudice and bigotry?

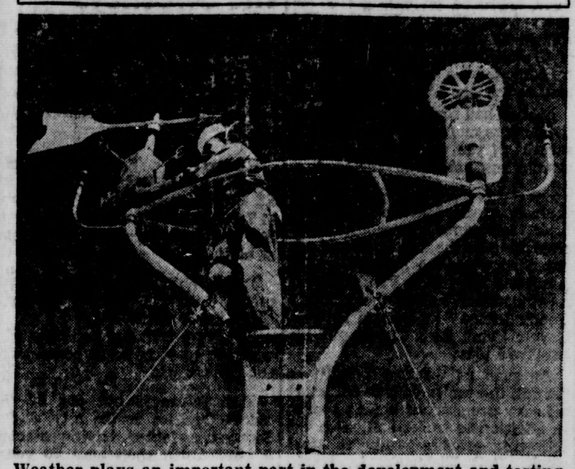
Navy Watches Old Man Weather



Weather plays an important part in the development and testing of aerial missiles. Therefore, the U. S. Navy maintains complete meteorological facilities at the Naval Ordnance Test Station, Inyokern, Calif., for predicting the antics of Old Man Weather. Such information is additionally of invaluable aid to the American public in many ways and is available when needed.

Coffee, Haitian Mainstay

Since the founding of the Haitian republic 145 years ago, coffee has been the mainstay of its economy. In recent years such products as sugar, sisal and bananas have been developed largely by foreign capital and under foreign control, but the great crop upon which more than any other, Haiti's many peasants depend for the little money they must have for their purchased necessities is coffee.

Princess Sets Style

A vogue for filigree spray brooches is being stimulated by Princess Elizabeth, according to leading London jewelers. They trace the style trend back to the gift of a floral spray of diamonds and rubies, notable for its filigree design, which the jewelry industry presented to the princess when she was married to Lieut. Philip Mountbatten, Duke of Edinburgh.

Atomic Energy for Railroads

Atomic scientists tell us that the energy released by splitting the atom will be harnessed for use by the railroads. This may not become practical for another 50 years, but it is certain that atomic energy will be playing a vital role in the transportation of people and goods in 2048.

Pasture Improvement

Five steps in pasture improvement; test and treat soil, disk well, reseed, control grazing and clip weeds.

Movement of Birds

It has been claimed that the Persians and Arabs compiled portions of their calendar according to the regular movement of the birds, and the only mysterious part of this natural phenomenon to them was the destination of the flyers. During the earliest years of the Christian era, writers believed that swallows hibernated in hollow trees in the winter.

Liquid Wax

Don't apply liquid wax by pouring it on the cloth you intend to use. Pour out the wax into a dish or pan first. Never pour the left-over wax back into the can, for contamination may cause the wax to spoil.

John C. Hopley, San Antonio, recently won the annual Liar's Club championship: He said he shot a billiard ball from under a fly so fast the fly fell and broke its back. Hopley carries the dead fly to prove it.

A perfume manufacturer recently attempted to precipitate a sweet-scented snowfall over Bridgeport, Conn., by having a plane sprinkle 50 lbs. of perfumed dry ice in the clouds above he city, but no snow fell.

Cubist Movement

Juan Gris, with Picasso and Braque, was one of the founders of the Cubist movement. Gris, a master of plastic relations, held that it made no difference how elements appeared in shape, color, and perspective as long as a harmonious whole was effected. "My art," he said, "is the art of snythesis, a deductive art."

Salt for Cattle

Salt, preferably in the coarsely pulverized form, should be accessible to cattle of all ages at all times.

Works Like Mad

When steel sheets were hand drawn by men who used long tongs to grab the red hot metal and chewed their handkerchiefs to save the linings of their mouths from blistering, the very best workmen could produce one ton an hour at most. The continuous rolling mill averages 150 tons an hour.

Nitrogen Supplies

Supplies of nitrogen, phosphate and potash for commercial fertilizers are expected to be about 10 per cent larger in 1949 than they were in 1948.

HI-LITES AT C.C.S.F

By Roy Hurlbert

City College concluded the hustle and bustle registration headaches early this week and embarked on its fourteenth year of instruction as a Board of Education authorized two year institution.

A sketch history would seem appropriate at this time, what with campus activities for the ensuing term in the embryo stage at the present.

Way back in '35, when steaks retailed at 25 cents per cut, a then exhorbitant figure, initial plans were made with a proposal by Dr. Edwin A. Lee, the superintendent of schools at the time.

Dr. Archibald J. Cloud, a grand gentleman and respected in the highest esteem by students and faculty alike, assumed the presidency which office he still maintains with the same effortless direction and supervision.

Fifteen hundred students seeking the benefits of higher knowledge comprised the college's first student body. With classes scattered throughout the city furthering the plea for a single location, some 3,000 enthusiasts realized their concerted efforts toward that end with the completion of the first building in August, 1940.

The outbreak of the recently concluded conflict saw the ranks of young men and women severely depleted with two-thirds of the pre-Pearl Harbor classes taking mass exodus to the various services.

When hostilities ended in '45, an all-time overflow of homecoming veterans converged on the Phelan Avenue premises necessitating additional cause for expansion. Fortunately through the determined bid of administrator Cloud, additional housing was to be found and utilized. This latter area consisted of 15 temporary dormitories built by the government during the war for the feminine bell hops or sailor slang "Waves."

Heaviest enrollment came in the two-year period of 46-47 with the average age well above the level peculiar to normal times in the swelling number of 5500 and upwards a semester.

A noticeable departure of the mid-twenty age clan is becoming increasingly apparent with the veterans now in the decided minority of the current estimated crop of 5000.

BASKETBALL

Before we ramble off the page in our supposed-to-be-brief oration concerning the alma mater, the writer must needs be alert and informative in regard to a small group of campusites who have attracted considerable attention of late with their explosive exploits.

The reference, of course, is to genial Ralph Hillsman's high-geared cage quintet which tonight and tomorrow goes into a do-or-die playoff-in-the-offing two-game series with Stockton (5-4), and Modesto, the latter co-southern division leaders in the stretch drive of the NCJC conference title chase. The Rams travel to the valley cities sporting an unusual 22 won and one lost seasonal slate, sharing the top spot with the Modestans, with an 8-1 circuit count apiece. Two wins on successive evenings could sew up the playoff entry spot for the locals but defeat in either could automatically nullify the championship contention of City College's best ever squad.

With but a single league tilt remaining following these "crucials" the Hillsmen have their hearts set on augmenting their sensational streak which included 20 consecutive triumphs. Menlo's Oaks hold the distinction of handing them their only setback, a toughie to lose, 33-34.

High scoring Grant Tech, always a threat in the junior college hoop scramble, extended its lead in the northern division in halting Marin and Napa to make it 10-0 and almost a cinch for that bracket's stalwart for crown claimancy. Santa Rosa is best man in the northern California loop with 8-2.

Last week end proved a lost one for invading bottom of the heap casabans from Hartnell (2-6) and Monterey (0-8), as they incurred their second respective humblings at the unerring hands of the hilltop crew.

Friday night the Rams shoook off an early first quarter bucket for bucket exchange with the Salinas gang and pulled away in turning on the steam to rout the lettuce sectioners, 78-54, in their maximum tally of the fast closing campaign.

The Rams had a field day, goal that is, as they meshed 35 two-pointers in racking up a spectacular try from the floor percentage.

Bob Metheny collared 19 points for individual accolades with his come-through counter partners, Dud Truelson and center Kev Duggan accounting for 18 and 13 tallies, respectively.

In the Monterey fiasco, the regulars exercised only their optic muscles as they viewed the one-sided contest from the bench. Tutor Hillsman used his reserves exclusively with the exception of first string guard Jim Caldwell, who

USE ENTRANCE

With modernization of California's highways in progress, service roads parralleling main highways are being constructed along many routes. Motorists are reminded by the California State Automobile Association that a safety provision of the Vehicle Code specifies that where such a service road has been seperated from the main highway, no vehicle shall be driven into the main thoroughfare except through an opening provided for that purpose.

South Pole Ice Cap

Growth of the South Pole ice cap is certified by the snowfalls which produce the thousands of great icebergs disgorged annually along its 12,000 mile coast line.

netted eight digits from the forward spot.

Monterey's inept five got little consolation from the leniency of their hosts and connected for a mediocre final count of 28 counters. City College's revised lineup worked with the precision of their predecessors, in piling up a walkaway differential of 36 points at the end, 64-28. Don Payne tanked 19 markers while Al "Galloping Greek" Athanasopoulos, found the range for 14.

Brushes Decay Away

Patricia Fair, director, Home Beauty Institute, was one of hundreds of volunteers working with New York dental research group developing Amm-i-dent anti-decay toothpowder formula. On contact with saliva, dentifrice releases ammonium to cut down acid-forming bacteria. Individuals testing new dentifrice showed reductions of 20% to 80% in decay rate. Tastes good, too.

Add these extra notes to economy meat dishes for real "company" airs. Good to eat is Meat Loaf, but have you discovered it's extra good when served with Sour Cream Sauce? And do you know that Hot Potato Salad is the perfect accompaniment for frankfurters or a bland fish dish?

Worm Medicines For Foals

Veterinary authorities are not in favor of giving worm medicines to foals at weaning time, because the most dangerous species of internal parasites have not yet reached maturity and are not accessible to the action of drugs in the intestine.

Mashed Potatoes

For a change from everyday mashed potatoes, add a little chopped chives or parsley.

Shearing the faces of heavily wooled feeder lambs is a good management practice, say animal husbandry specialists. The shearing will increase gains in lamb feeding.

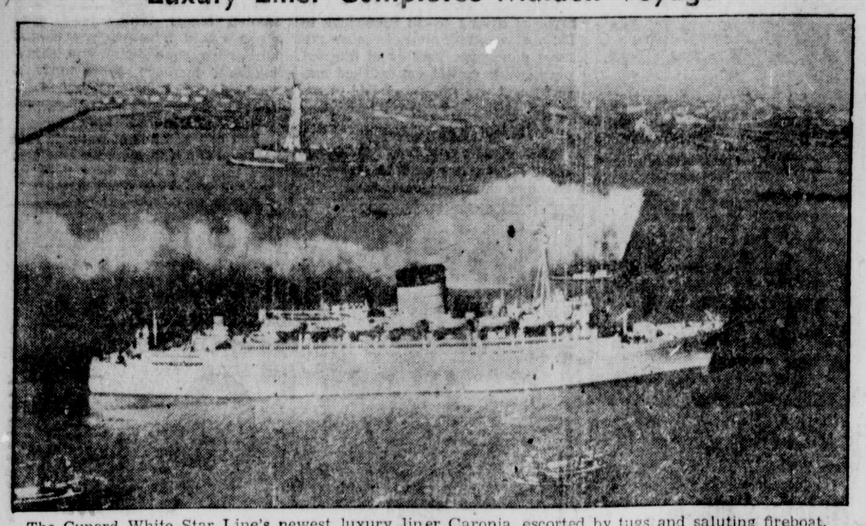
Luxury Liner Completes Maiden Voyage



The Cunard White Star Line's newest luxury liner Caronia, escorted by tugs and saluting fireboat, sails past the Statue of Liberty into New York harbor, completing her maiden trans-Atlantic voyage from Southampton, England. The Caronia, largest vessel built since the war, boasts the largest stack in the world and a hull painted in three shades of green.

Veterans Weekly News Column

More than 446,500 World War II veterans in California, Arizona, Nevada and the Hawaiian islands have National Service Life Insurance in force, the Veterans Administration reports.

VA said more than 111,000 of these veterans with active insurance policies have converted to a permanent plan of G-I insurance. The remaining 335,000 have retained the same G-I term insurance they carried in the service.

VA officials report that each month several thousand veterans are reinstating lapsed National Service Life Insurance. Information regarding reinstatement of insurance may be obtained at the nearest VA office.

Question: My husband, a World War II veteran, holds a bad conduct discharge. Is he entitled to benefits under the GI Bill?

Answer: Since your husband holds neither an honorable nor a dishonorable discharge from the armed services, it will be necessary for him to ask his nearest VA office for a decision as to whether he was discharged under conditions other than dishonorable. He also may apply to the Army or Navy for revision of discharge.

Question: Is there any time limit to the duration of a business loan?

Answer: Yes. A non - real estate business loan must be repaid in 10 years or less; real estate loans may run up to 25 years.

Question: Am I eligible for a GI loan to buy a share in a going business in another city?

Answer: You are eligible if you devote your personal labor or supervise the business either on a full-time or part-time basis.

Hospitalization and outpatient treatment provided by Veterans Administration are not available to members of veterans' families, VA said in response to a number of inquiries.

Many wives of veterans were treated by Army and Navy doctors while their husbands were in service. Some wives now erroneously believe they are entitled to medical treatment from VA physicians.

Only ex-servicemen and women, if discharged under conditions other than dishonorable, are entitled to hospital treatment under the following priority system:

First — Emergency cases.

Second Those suffering from injuries or diseases incurred in or aggravated by military service.

Third — Those who state under oath they are unable to pay hospital charges for treatment of non-service-connected disabilities or illnesses. These veterans, if not in the emergency category, must wait until a bed becomes available.

Out patient treatment is available only for veterans with service-connected disabilities. Each veteran's eligibility must be determined by VA before treatment of this type can be authorized.

Question: Under what circumstances is it necessary for me to take a physical examination in order to reinstate my National Service Life Insurance Policy?

Answer: It is necessary to take a physical examination in order to reinstate National Service Life Insurance in every case where the insurance has lapsed for more than three months.

Question: May I transfer my National Service Life Insurance policy to any of the private companies?

Answer: No. Your NSLI is convertible only to one or more of the six permanent plans issued by Veterans Administration. These are Ordinary Life, 30-payment Life, 20-payment Life, 20-Year Endowment, Endowment at age 60, and Endowment at age 65.

Apples for Betty

By BETTY BARCLAY

Apples are here again in plenty—one of the happy signs of winter. Nippy frosts outdoors, cozy fires inside and juicy apples always seem to go hand in hand. It's a sure bet that no American desserts are more popular than those made with apples. To prove it, here's a simplified recipe for Apple Brown Betty that's tops in taste and texture—and unbeatable for frosty weather popularity.

Flaky Brown Betty

3 large apples pared, cored and thinly sliced
1 teaspoon lemon juice
4 tablespoons butter or margarine
¾ cup brown sugar, firmly packed
1½ cups wheat flakes
¼ teaspoon cinnamon
¼ teaspoon salt

Arrange apples in greased baking dish and sprinkle with lemon juice. Cream butter, add sugar gradually, and cream together thoroughly. Add wheat flakes, cinnamon, and salt, and mix well. Spread over apples. Bake, covered in moderate oven (350° F.) 30 minutes; then remove cover and continue baking 15 minutes longer, or until apples are tender. Serve plain or with cream. Makes 4 to 6 servings.

1-2-3 Desserts

By BETTY BARCLAY

Most families like dessert every day — and that adds up to 365 days a year! What a lot of desserts for the poor homemaker who likes to be original and not stick to one pattern!

Here's a way to make your variation easier: have you ever thought of dividing your dessert file into different classifications? For instance, an elaborate dessert for special occasions; a simple dessert to be enjoyed at any hour of the day; and then, quite possibly, a dessert that even the children can make, thereby serving as entertainment too.

The Jellied Plum Pudding recipe below is definitely of the party variety for it's gay and colorful and serves 12 with ease. The Salted Peanut Cookies are excellent served either along at meals or between-times, or as a fancy dessert with fruit or ice cream. And for solving that double problem of keeping the children entertained and at the same time, concocting the dinner sweet, nothing could be easier than Chocolate Toasties Clusters. There's only one danger — that there won't be enough left for dinner!

Jellied Plum Pudding

2 packages cherry-flavored gelatin
4 cups hot water
Dash of salt
¾ teaspoon cinnamon
¼ teaspoon cloves
1 cup finely cut raisins
1 cup finely cut cooked prunes
⅓ cup finely cut citron
1 cup finely cut nut meats
1 cup Grape-Nuts

Dissolve gelatin in hot water. Cool. Pour 1 cup into mold or mixing bowl and chill until set.

Chill remaining gelatin until slightly thickened. Then add salt, spices, fruits, nuts, and Grape-Nuts. Turn out over firm gelatin in mold. Chill until firm. Unmold. Serve with sweetened whipped cream. Makes 12 to 14 servings.

Salted Peanut Cookies

1½ cups plus 2 tablespoons sifted cake flour
½ teaspoon double-acting baking powder
¾ teaspoon soda
½ teaspoon salt
½ cup shortening
1¼ cups brown sugar, firmly packed
1 egg, unbeaten
¼ cup milk
1½ cups raisin bran
¾ cup chopped salted peanuts

Sift flour once, measure, add baking powder, soda, and salt, and sift again. Cream shortening; add sugar gradually and cream together until light and fluffy. Add egg and beat well. Add flour, alternately with milk, mixing well after each addition. Add bran and peanuts and blend. Drop from teaspoon onto greased baking sheet. Bake in moderate oven (375° F.) 8 minutes, or until done. Makes about 4 dozen cookies.

Chocolate Toasties Clusters

½ package chocolate chips
⅔ cup corn flakes

Heat chocolate over boiling water until partly melted; then remove from boiling water and stir until blended. Add corn flakes and mix well. Drop from teaspoon on waxed paper. Cool until firm. Makes 12 clusters.

ONLY A FEW MORE WEEKS ARE LEFT ---

(Editor's Note) These income tax articles have been prepared by Collector of Internal Revenue James G. Smyth of the First California District to outline changes in the new tax laws. Each article is complete in itself. Watch for these stories in the Daly City Record. Clip and save them! They may provide the answers to your income tax problems.

The profit from the sale of any property is taxable income and the law requires you to report it on your return. To account for the sale of property the taxpayer is required to file his return on Form 1040. Schedule D of Form 1040 is provided for the taxpayer's convenience in reporting and accounting for sales.

The law provides a special set of rules for determining the gain or loss resulting from the sale or exchange of property. There are three classes of such property for income tax purposes. They are:

(1) Capital assets
(2) Noncapital or ordinary assets
(3) Assets that are some times one, and sometimes the other, depending on the circumstances

For income tax purposes almost all property is classified as capital assets. Two kinds of general property are not considered capital assets. These are:

(1) Property held for sale in a trade or business, or real property and depreciable property used in business;

(2) Certain Federal, State, and Municipal obligations.

Stocks and bonds, when held by individual taxpayers are capital assets. They are not so classed when held for resale by a securities dealer. A personal residence is a "capital asset." Homes held by a real estate broker for sale are not "capital assets."

An automobile used for pleasure is a capital asset, but a truck used in business is not. Household furnishings, jewelry, and almost all other kinds of property are usually capital assets when owned or used for pleasure or personal investments.

Almost every taxpayer has bought or sold a capital asset, a piece of property, at one time or another. In most of these transactions the taxpayer realizes a profit or sustains a loss. For income tax purposes it is important to classify these gains or losses as "long term" or "short term."

If a capital asset is held six months or less, the gain or loss resulting from the sale or exchange is "short term." Any profit made is taxable and any allowable loss is deductible in full.

When a capital asset is held longer than six months, the gain or loss resulting from the sale or exchange is "long term." Only one-half of the profit is taxable and only one-half of any allowable loss is deductible.

It is important to note that short term capital gains or losses on several transactions in the same year must be taken together. Long term capital gains and losses on several transactions must also be taken together. In both cases, the losses must be deducted from the gains, any resulting loss is deductible to the extent of the net income (or adjusted gross income if the tax table is used) or $1000, whichever is smaller.

Married couples in California, a community property State, may, by filing separate returns deduct to the extent of the net income, or Adjusted Gross Income if the tax table is used, or $1000, whichever is smaller, on each return. This enables them to deduct a maximum of $2000 in one year on capital asset losses.

In some cases a taxpayer must pay a tax on the profit he makes but cannot deduct any losses he sustains. Sales or exchanges, or any property which is not used for business or held for profitable sale, fall under this general rule.

For example: a taxpayer buys a radio. After using it for several months he sells it for more than he paid for it. This profit is a capital gain and is taxable. On the other hand if he loses money when he sells, it is not a deductible loss. The asset is not a business asset, because the taxpayer is not in the radio business, and the property was not purchased for profit purposes.

Naional advertisers spent almost 10 million dollars for space in the nations 8,312 weekly newspapers last year according to the American Press Association. Both national and local advertisers found that advertising in the Daly City Record brings results.

The HCL factor has mostly hit the food item in the budgets of people here. In 1939 only 19.5 per cent of disposable income was spent in food stores, but now we spend 25 per cent.

California Home Of 673 Kinds Of Fish

There are 673 kinds of fish in California waters according to a survey recently completed by Dr. Carl L. Hubbs of the University of California's Scripps Institution of Oceanography and W. I. Follett, curator of fishes in the California Academy of Sciences.

There are also 30 kinds of sharks, ranging all the way from the small slime shark, only about one foot long, to the basking shark, which rivals the whales in size. In the group of skates and rays 17 species are known, including one electric ray and the giant manta.

A couple of holdovers from types that were in existence long before man may be found in California waters. They are the lancelet, thought to be the ancestor of the vertebrates, and the hagfish, that bores into the flesh of larger fishes and eats them, leaving but skin and bones.

The survey shows there are 500 kinds of marine fish, 121 freshwater fish, and 52 that live in either fresh or salt water.

For the survey the waters of California are defined to include both sides of boundary freshwaters and the Pacific Ocean within 500 miles of any point of land within state boundaries. The seaward limit coincides roughly with the outer edge of the California current.

BRANCH OF DA's OFFICE REQUESTED

The possibility of having a branch of the district attorney's office in South San Francisco came up last week when Police Chief Louis Belloni announced that he would renew his fight for the measure.

The branch office sought would be used by South San Francisco, San Bruno, Daly City, Bayshore City, Brisbane and the surrounding unicorporated area, according to Belloni.

Belloni offered to provide space to provide the district attorney with an office in South San Francisco's new police station which will be completed in May.

Isaac Humphrey, an ex-Georgia miner, is credited with introduction of machinery for gold mining in California when, on March 9, 1848, he made use of the "rocker."

AGE AND YOUTH

The highest pedestrian traffic accident rate is found among two age groups—elderly persons of 65 years or older, and children between 5 and 14 years old, the California State Automobile Association points out, giviing sad meaning to the Latin proverb: "Old men are children twice."
